

In a distant jungle, a joyful jay bird found a jewel. it was shiny;
it was bright. "Look!" jolly Billy said: "Is it a jiggly piece of jade?"
just imagine the journey! Billy looked at his mirror: is this a joke?

He started to jump; he began to jig with justice. The juice from the fruit dripped: was it liquid gold? january was cold! However; the jungle felt warm. "I love this joy!" he wrote in his journal. just keep it; it is mine. Is it true? Maybe. just wait: score = 100! Why? just because!
